

Dear All,

I don't really like saying that I have a favourite season of the year, because in their turn they are all beautiful, but force me to choose and it would be autumn. The smell of the first bonfires as the gardens are tidied ready for Winter, the last of the apples falling from the trees and making dashes of colour in the fallen leaves, the night chill, and if lucky, the log fires in the evening. I lived for some years in the Mediterranean, and to fly into Heathrow in the autumn was a blessing after virtually no seasonal changes where I lived.

All that given, November brings with it the time of remembrance. First All Saints on the 1st, all joy, uplifting hymns, and in the southern parts of Europe a Public Holiday, and wonderful Fiestas with firework displays in every village and town. Maybe we should do a little more celebrating of the 'saints' too – all those who have gone before us and leave us the joy of remembering.

How about thinking of them not just on the 1st but also on the 5th November? The 'saints' will range from the Apostles (the heavenward rockets, lighting up the sky) to those we have all wondered at, Mother Teresa, Martin Luther King, Gladys Aylward and others (the Roman Candles who have shone brightly), and then those we have known who have lit our lives, if even for a short time, but with impact (Catherine Wheels whirring around and cheering us) – and lastly US. We are the sparklers, fondly lit and burning by the bonfires, and reflecting in the Father's love. Maybe not a great Theological treatise, but something to think about – all of us 'saints' in God's plan.

And then comes All Souls on the 2nd – what a great festival this is – how full of love and memories for all those we have loved and see no more who have helped us reach where we are. What a time of rich thanksgiving. Then come the poppies and Remembrance Sunday when we think not only of Wars and the members of the armed forces who paid the ultimate price to defend our land, but also of civilians playing their parts in those conflicts, especially this year on the 100 anniversary of that great Nurse Edith Cavell. We think and pray too for those families who have lost loved ones more recently in our modern battles. We come together as communities to give thanks for our democracy, often taken for granted, which called for gallant and brave people to shed their life to protect.

So there we have it, joy and rejoicing, memories and thankfulness – 'then thank the Lord, oh thank the Lord, for all His Love!' as the Harvest hymns says.

God Bless, Judy

Church News

It's that time of year again when we start to think about next year's church rotas. As always we welcome newcomers to these rotas, so if you are interested in helping please get in touch with any of the following people.

Altar Flowers	Janet Ireland	263117
Church cleaning	Sue Carpenter	01954 252797
Coffee making	Julia Stibbs	262527
Lesson readers	Hugh Greenfield	262005/Anne Coulson 262666

After many years Rita and Peter Clarkson are giving up organising the cleaning rota and we would like to offer our grateful thanks to them both for the efficient and careful way they have overseen this task. Sue Carpenter and Ruth Barnes will now take on this role. So many people in the community help the church in lots of ways and we are very appreciative of all the support we receive. Thanks too, to all those who keep the churchyard grass mown and hedges trimmed in the summer.

Wednesday 11th November is the next Generous Slice Cafe.

This is from 8.45am in the village Hall. Open to everyone but especially those dropping off children at school and playgroup. Coffee, tea, croissants, toast, cake etc. Do come and meet your friends over leisurely refreshments. These mornings are not fundraising events so we do not make a charge, but we do welcome small donations to cover our costs. Run by St. Peter's church and Barton Baptist church.

The next churchyard clean up is on Saturday 21st November from 9.30am. If you are able to help, please come along with some basic tools; there should be lots of leaves to sweep up and lots of tidying up to do.

Barton Baptist Church

Our Bible studies during November will be on the 4th and 18th and we shall continue our look at the gospel of John. They are held in the meeting room starting at 7.30pm. The 'tea and chats' are on the 10th and 24th from 2.30pm. Do pop in, even for a few minutes, and you are assured a warm welcome, a good cup of tea and some delicious eats. The foodbank collection point is open during these times. Wednesday November 25th sees the first of our 4 joint advent meetings with St Peter's. They are always well attended and a great chance for our two churches to meet together. They run from 7.30pm to approx. 9pm, with time for discussion and sharing over refreshments. If you have been before, please come again. If you have not been before this is your personal invitation. You are most welcome.

Village website <http://www.barton-cambs.org.uk/> is now fully operational again and has lots of useful and up-to-date information. Please contact Bev Edwards or Margaret Penston to make further suggestions.

Presentation of the British Empire Medal to John Boocock: The Lord Lieutenant, Sir Hugh Duberly KCVO, CBE, the representative of The Queen in the County, is coming to the Village Hall at 2.15 pm on Friday 6th November, just after the normal monthly lunch, for a brief ceremony to present the medal to John. You are most welcome to attend. If you require lunch, please make sure you contact Anne Coulson beforehand on 262666.

District Councillor Francis Burkitt: At the last meeting Francis mentioned that South Cambridgeshire District Council was keen to build affordable homes, but had to be clearer about proposed ‘right to buy’ legislation. It looked forward to being able to retain business rates, but again wondered what the exact regulations would entail. There would be a change in SCDC ward boundaries to even out the number of electors per councillor; the next district council elections would be held in 2018. It is likely that more small-scale planning applications will be decided by delegation to officers rather than by referral to the SCDC Planning Committee (local opinion still favours the Planning Committee route and Barton will lobby for that). He encouraged us to respond to the current and future consultations on Transport Schemes for the City Deal as public opinion will play a major role.

External audit of the Council: PKF Littlejohn LLP has advised: the Annual Return 2014-15 is in accordance with proper practices, and no matters give cause for concern. The Return has been posted on the website.

Barton book exchange: You will have noticed that the red phone box near the Duck Pond has been transformed by a willing band of volunteers. Many thanks to all those who have helped. Please help yourself to a book. You can keep, return or replace it as you wish. If you would like to donate more than a couple of books contact Val Baines on 263152 or Elizabeth Tompson on 262683. Help us to keep our kiosk tidy and accessible. If you have any comments or requests, please write them in the notebook provided.

The skate ramp on the Rec: We are sorry to say that the skate ramp at the Recreation Ground is not safe to use at this time. We are working to get it repaired as soon as possible. In particular, please do not allow young children to play on it. We do not want them to get any splinters!

Highways and Footways in the village: Councillors are very aware of problems crossing roads and of difficulties with parking and traffic at school times. They continue to work with County Council Highways officers on these areas, but are often frustrated by both cost and red tape.

City Deal transport schemes – your voice counts!! THIS IS IMPORTANT!

Improvements to the A428 corridor have been included in the agreed areas to be considered during the first five years of the City Deal. The ‘Cambourne to Cambridge – Better bus journeys’ consultation is taking place up to 23rd November 2015. There are to be exhibitions held along this corridor during the consultation where there will be an opportunity to look at the different options being proposed. Officers will be available to answer your questions.

Bourn	Wed 28 October	5 - 8pm	Village Hall, Short Street, CB23 2SG
Coton	Thu 29 October	6 - 8pm	Village Hall, Coton, CB23 7PL
Cambridge	Monday 2 November	5 - 8pm	Roger Needham Building, University of Cambridge, CB3 0FZ
Hardwick	Tuesday 3 November	5 - 8pm	Primary School, Hardwick, CB23 7RE
Cambridge	Tuesday 10 November	5 - 8pm	Lucy Cavendish College, Lady Margaret Road, CB3 0BU
Highfields Caldecote	Wednesday 18 November	5 - 8pm	Caldecote Primary School, Highfields Road, CB23 7NX

You can find out more information about the consultation and how to respond to it on the Greater Cambridge City Deal website www.gccitydeal.co.uk/cambourne-to-cambridge Please reply personally and tell your Councillors what you think too. In the next few months there are likely to be further significant consultations for you to make your voice heard about the future infrastructure around Cambridge.

Job opportunity at the Arbory Trust

The popularity of the Barton Woodland Burial Ground means additional staff is needed. Duties will involve attending at some core time, as well as for funerals as consultation, as required. A local person with a sympathetic approach and good interpersonal skills who can be flexible will be required.

For an informal chat or more information please contact Hilary Jackson, the Administrator on 01223 303874 or email enquiries@arborytrust.org

Official notices and full minutes of meetings can be seen on the notice board by the pond.

Arthur Illes

In July Arthur Illes died at the age of 87. His funeral service took place on 4th August. He and his wife, Joan, were among the first people to reside in Roman Hill when the houses were newly built. Over the many years of his chairmanship of the Cambridge branch of Leukaemia Research he raised hundreds of thousands of pounds provided by his constant sales, among them the annual Christmas Cake Stall which were largely stocked by his friends from Barton. He served for over a decade on the PCC most of them as Secretary and he was a wonderful support for the Open Gate Sunday School. His life's work was the cataloguing of books and periodicals; his position at Cambridge University Library was a passion which never diminished and his knowledge and love of the games of cricket and rugby were legendary. Always the optimist and joker, as he would say, "Nice day for the race!" The human race, that is.

Andy Malcolm gave us an entertaining talk on his work as a fundraiser and organiser for The Fisherman's Mission. His talk was titled The Price of Fish and Chips. The mission is a 134-year-old Christian charity supporting fishermen and their families. He highlighted the dangerous life of fishermen while explaining the very worthwhile work of the mission. November meeting: Tracy Clayton Photo Organising.

Barton School

We have been reflecting on the last year and the good foundations we have built as a school, in our children's learning, our working together as a team in school and our communication with parents. We are building on these foundations, which we believe are Christian foundations of truth and justice, with a display in the School entrance hall. Some of the values we are thinking carefully about are 'caring', 'fairness', 'peace', 'perseverance'.

This half term, we have been thinking about how we can care for others and we have raised over £1000 for various charities – we hosted the coffee morning for MacMillan Cancer Research Charity and it was great to welcome members of the community into our school, as well as encouraging our children to give to charity and receive delicious cakes in return.

We ran a Pro-Kick Challenge for the whole school, where every child had the chance to get sponsorship for kicking a ball into a huge blow up goal. The money raised has gone to underprivileged children in this country and abroad.

One of our pupils wanted to raise money for the Syrian crisis and so we had a collection bowl at the end of the Harvest Service. It's great to see initiative. An array of food items were collected for Jimmy's Night Shelter and a volunteer from the charity kindly took part in the service and filled her car with bags. So, we are encouraging our pupils to think outside Barton and they are just brilliant at coming up with ideas.

In school, we are working hard on our standards and expectations in writing. Our new handwriting scheme has really shown how anyone can improve their presentation. Even the youngest are learning how to join letters from the very beginning. Our Year 5s and 6s were set a huge challenge to write a long story with each paragraph displaying features of a different genre, going from a mystery story to a space story etc. They are very exciting and displayed in the entrance hall, when you have a moment to read them! Our Swallow Class has been producing fabulous information texts about Greek warriors. Kingfisher Class has been writing poetry based on an interesting poet called Benjamin Zephaniah. Our youngest children have been writing story maps about their teddy getting lost and I even think they used the church grounds to discover where their teddies were! You may have seen them.

Neighbourhood Watch

Crime levels in Barton, and in South Cambs in general, seems to have reduced recently. The main types of crime are Antisocial Behaviour (31%), Theft (15%), Criminal Damage (15%), Burglary (13%), Violent Crime (12%) and Vehicle Crime (8%). This is encouraging, but we need to take care to protect our property as the nights become longer. Police are currently concerned about thefts of caravans and thefts of, and from, cars and vans. Farm equipment and plant such as JCBs are also vulnerable at present. We can help to keep crime low by reporting any suspicious activity to the police on the 101 number, or 999 if you suspect a crime is in progress. Our Police and Crime Commissioner, Sir Graham Bright, has recently decided not to stand for re-election. Let us hope that his replacement is up to the difficult task of maintaining services with a reducing budget.

Keep safe, Bev Edwards

Richard Sockett is directing and the cast includes existing members plus some new faces. Richard is also staging the play in the centre of the hall, with seating on two sides, giving the audience an 'all round view' and making them really feel part of the story.

New performance dates for this production, starting at 7.45 pm, are from Tuesday 24th November through to Saturday 28th November, when there will be a matinee at 2.30 pm and evening performance at 7.45 pm.

Barton Energy Group

The price of heating oil has been at a four-year low during most of the summer. As it's now creeping up, it may be a good time to order if you don't have a full tank. Check out current prices at www.boilerjuice.com/heating-oil-prices-england or get a quote by calling 0800 321 3275. The market is very competitive so it's a good idea to get more than one quotation. The Barton Ward Oil Club compares prices from several suppliers and gives a portion of its income to local funds - look for QTSQ (BWOC) on www.agricoleoil.co.uk, or call 01954 719452. The government is now consulting on a proposal to reduce support for new domestic solar power installations. The plan is to cut the subsidy ('feed-in-tariff') to 1.63 pence per unit from 1st January 2016 (from the current rate of 12.47 pence). This does not affect people who buy solar panels before 1st January 2016. If you intend to buy a solar power system, you need to buy it soon to ensure that it is operational in time to obtain the higher subsidy. It will then be a good, long-term investment and will provide income, and some free electricity, for 20 years. A number of suppliers have gone into liquidation recently, so please choose one with a stable history and get at least two quotations. We are unable to endorse a specific company, but we know that Beechdale Energy and Solar Merge have both supplied systems to Barton residents in the past and have been in business for several years.

Cambridgeshire Fire and Rescue Service – Have fun safely on 5th November

The fire service recommends going to an organised firework display instead of holding one at home, however, if you do use fireworks or light a bonfire at home, please take our safety advice to ensure it's just fireworks that go off with a bang:

- Keep fireworks in a closed box and always follow the instructions.
- Light them at arm's length using a taper and stand well back.
- Never go back to a lit firework.
- Never put fireworks in your pocket or throw them.
- Don't light bonfires in unsuitable weather particularly in windy conditions.

- Don't leave bonfires unattended.
- Build bonfires well clear of buildings, fences and hedges.
- Never use flammable liquids to start the fire, and never burn dangerous rubbish such as aerosols, paint, foam furniture, rubber tyres, and batteries.
- Before you light the bonfire, check that children and animals are not hiding inside and are a safe distance away.
